

Since the "no call" has gone into effect, we've had peaceful meals at night & no hassels during the day. Keep our "no call list". If it's what the people in WI want one group should not be able to overturn the will of the people in WI who don't want to be bothered.